1. Major Petrov of the Industry Division, SMA Saxony, stated in May that he had received an order according to which production of export articles has higher priority on raw materials than production for reparations. Petrov said that exports to Finland, Sweden, Switzerland, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Romania, and especially England are top priority.

2. In this connection source learned that Karlshorst has ordered production plans reduced by 40% because of raw material shortages. Lt. Col. Ternikov of the Industry Division, SMA Saxony, told source that the steel industry and chemical industry are going to be reorganized on the Russian model with related industries grouped together near their source of raw material.

25X1A 3. [REDACTED] including Chemische Fabrik von Heyden, Magdeburg, Rudolf Jack, Leipzig, Schopper, Leipzig, R. Wolf, Magdeburg, Krupp Gruson, Magdeburg, all machinery is marked with Russian dismantling symbols ready for removal at any time. Each of these factories has lumber in reserve for crating its machinery when the order is given.
